

HELSINGIN YLIOPISTON
VIIKIN NORMAALIKOULU

Viikki Teacher Training School

Erja Schunk, Coordinator for International Relations

13.3.2019

History

- founded in 1869
- the first Finnish-speaking girls' school in Finland
- in 1974 the school became part of the teacher training unit of the University of Helsinki
- one of the 10 teacher training schools in Finland
- the new school building built in 2003

Vision

- Viikki Teacher Training School offers a good, safe and high-quality environment for learning and cooperation.

Task by the Ministry of Education

- to improve and develop teaching, the curricula, and teacher training within the university

Functions of Viikki Teacher Training School of the University of Helsinki

I. Primary and Secondary Education

1) Basic education

- a) Primary school (grades 1-6): about 400 pupils, 19 classroom teachers and 6-8 subject teachers
- b) Lower secondary school (grades 7-9): almost 300 pupils and 69 full-time subject teachers

2) Upper secondary school:

about 250 students and 69 full-time subject teachers

Functions of Viikki Teacher Training School of the University of Helsinki

II. Teacher Training

1. Class teacher training (approximately 150 student teachers per year)
2. Subject teacher training (approximately 200 student teachers per year)
3. Learning support teacher training (Special Education)

Functions of Viikki Teacher Training School of the University of Helsinki

III. In-service Teacher Training

IV. Research

Administrative Principal: Dr Tapio Lahtero

PRIMARY SCHOOL
Principal Mr Kimmo
Koskinen

LOWER SECONDARY SCHOOL Principal
Ms Marja Martikainen

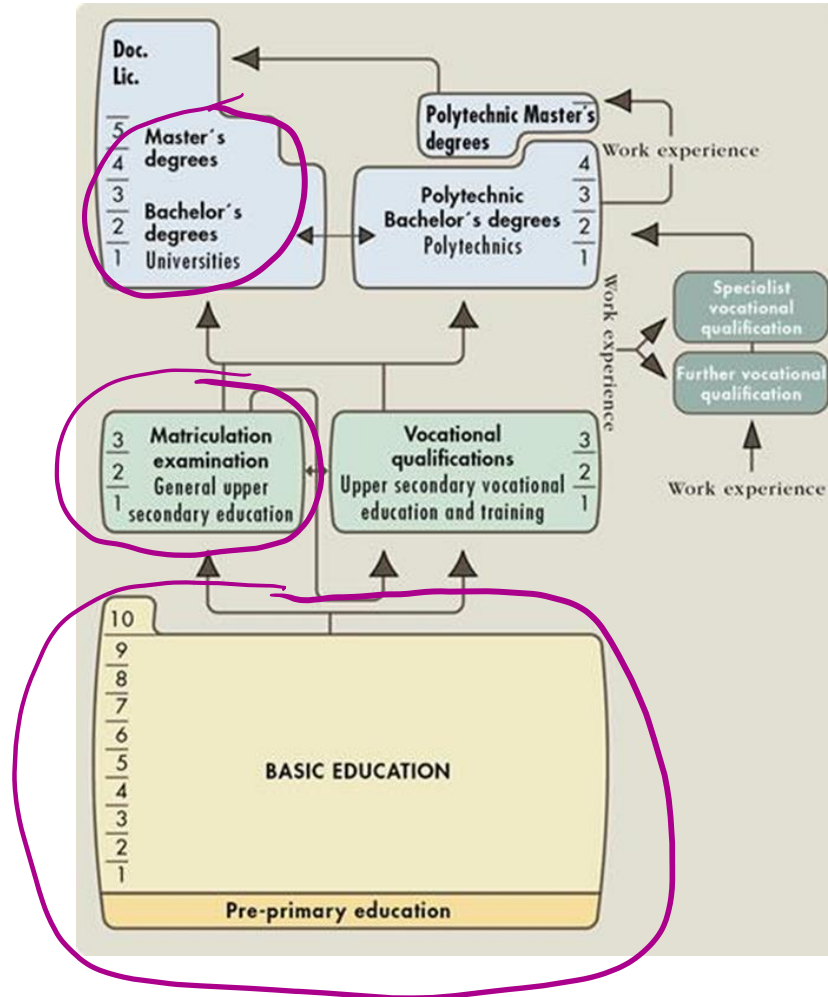

UPPER SECONDARY
SCHOOL Principal
Mr Reijo Honkanen

LEADER BOARD:
Principals + 5
Coordinators

Different teams and groups

Shared leadership in Viikki TTS

The Finnish Education System

During the visit

- Please, take only general pictures.
- Audio and video recording not allowed.

Thank you for your cooperation!

